

Jester Park Equestrian Center

Our Therapy and Lesson Horses

Bandit is a bay colored gelding. You might notice a brand on Bandit from when he was owned by the Lazy K Bar Ranch. Before he came to work at JPEC, he was a heeler roping horse. Bandit is very sweet and loves attention.

Jester Park Equestrian Center

Our Therapy and Lesson Horses

Fiddle My Chips is an American Quarter Horse. We call him Banjo. He is a buckskin and tall. Banjo is a steady horse who likes to give safe rides. That makes him an honest horse.

Jester Park Equestrian Center

Our Therapy and Lesson Horses

Doc's Cat in the Hat (Cat) is a registered quarter horse mare. She is sorrel in color with a white star and snip on her face. She also has a white sock on her right hind leg and her left pastern (low part of the leg) is also white. Cat started her work at JPEC in March 2004. Cat has big, soft brown eyes and loves treats and hugs.

Jester Park Equestrian Center

Our Therapy and Lesson Horses

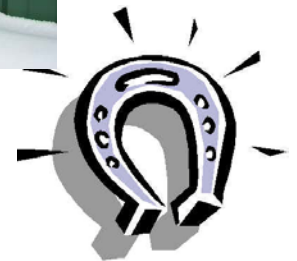

Black Gold Chance (Chance) is a registered quarter horse. Chance is black in color with just a bit of white on his hind feet. He loves his job with the riders and when he is being led by any rider, he adjusts his steps to match that person's speed whether he/she is walking, using a walker, or a wheelchair. Chance is our backriding horse and the most trusted therapy horse we have. Chance loves hugs and kisses from the riders and is extremely polite when taking his treats.

Jester Park Equestrian Center

Our Therapy and Lesson Horses

Cherokee is an Appaloosa horse. He is one of the taller therapy horses. Cherokee has a nice trot for riders to learn how to sit a trot and although he needs a little encouragement to keep working, he loves the attention he gets from everyone.

Jester Park Equestrian Center

Our Therapy and Lesson Horses

Estar is a grey Arabian gelding. He has a lot of energy. Arabians were bred for stamina so Estar can work a long time. He's fun to ride because he's so willing to move for his rider. He is also very smooth to ride.

Jester Park Equestrian Center

Our Therapy and Lesson Horses

Freckles is a quarter horse cross. During the summer months we can see the freckles he has all over his body, but during the winter he looks just white with all of his winter hair. Freckles is a willing worker with a long, steady stride. Freckles started his career at JPEC as a trail horse until we discovered his therapy horse talents.

Jester Park Equestrian Center

Our Therapy and Lesson Horses

Harley is a black Shetland pony with a star on his forehead. He gets very fuzzy in the winter with all his thick winter hair. When Harley is turned loose in the arena, he likes to RUN. Harley is very curious and likes to look at the rider as he/she brushes him. Harley is fond of hugs and treats from riders and volunteers.

Jester Park Equestrian Center

Our Therapy and Lesson Horses

Gypsy is a sorrel colored Arabian mare. She grew up in a back yard with a garage for her barn! Gypsy has been shown in 4H and open shows and just loves people. We're so lucky to have her at Jester for a lesson horse.

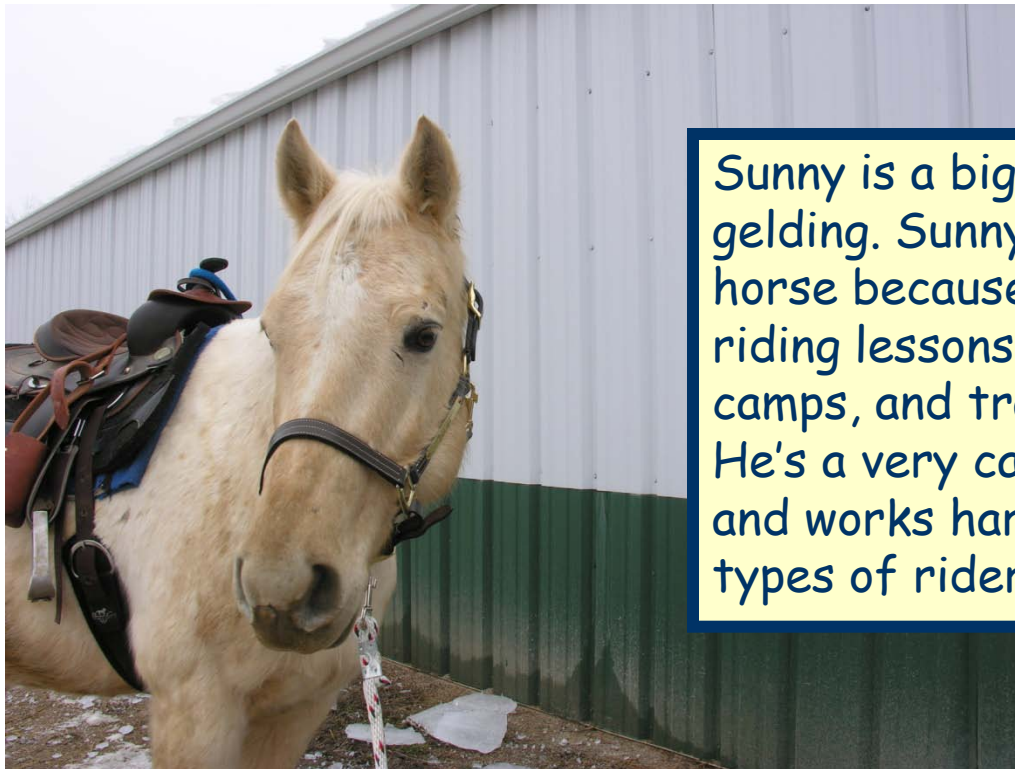

Jester Park Equestrian Center Our Therapy and Lesson Horses

Josie and Pearl are Percheron draft horses. They work as a team. They pull wagons and sleighs and work very hard at JPEC. Pearl can also be ridden! Josie and Pearl are 17 hands tall and weigh 1,700 pounds!

Jester Park Equestrian Center

Our Therapy and Lesson Horses

Sunny is a big palomino gelding. Sunny is a busy horse because he gives riding lessons, horse camps, and trail rides. He's a very calm horse and works hard for all types of riders.

Jester Park Equestrian Center

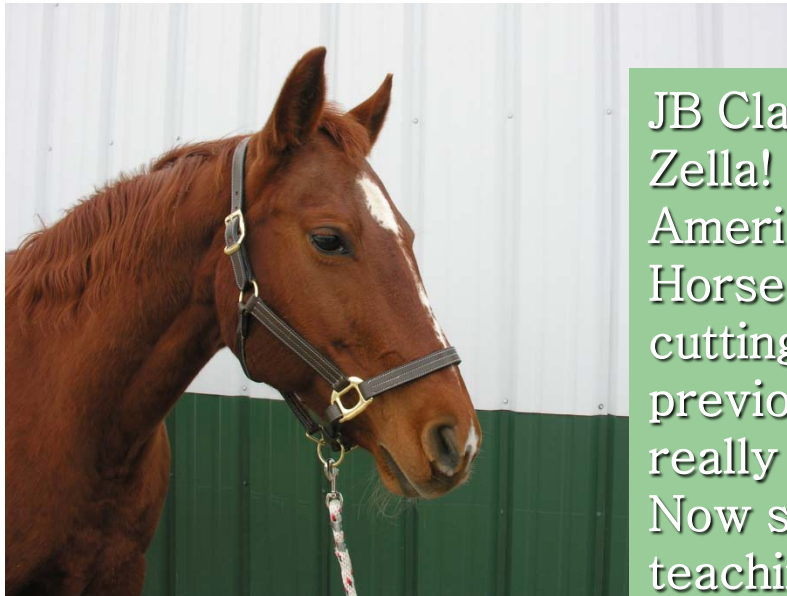

Our Therapy and Lesson Horses

Herky is a ranch-type palomino gelding. His smaller and stocky build means he can work all day. Herky has a nice steady trot and canter that is easy for people to learn how to ride.

Jester Park Equestrian Center

Our Therapy and Lesson Horses

JB Clark Bar Sprat is Zella! She's a sorrel American Quarter Horse mare who was a cutting horse in her previous job. She was really good at that job! Now she enjoys teaching children how to ride using natural aids.

Jester Park Equestrian Center

Our Therapy and Lesson Horses

Cedar View Anna (Anna) is a Norwegian Fjord. She has a unique look and style with her soft eye, short & sturdy build and thick neck. Her coloring is dun with a black strip down the center of her mane, tail and back. The mane of a Fjord generally stands straight up. The Fjord breed has inhabited Norway since prehistoric times and are sure-footed, hardy workers.

Jester Park Equestrian Center Our Therapy and Lesson Horses

Caz is a black Morgan gelding. Morgans are known for their versatility and endurance. Caz is very gentle and a good representative of the Morgan breed. Caz is used in therapy and advanced riding lessons.

Jester Park Equestrian Center Our Therapy and Lesson Horses

Snowball is a white Shetland pony. When it's muddy outside, he has also been known as "Mudball". Snowball loves his treats and gets very excited when he realizes the treats are on their way to him. Snowball is very calm and loves to be brushed and hugged.

Jester Park Equestrian Center Our Therapy and Lesson Horses

Max is an American Paint Horse gelding. He has a sweet disposition and like to go on trail rides.

Jester Park Equestrian Center Our Therapy and Lesson Horses

Chip and Dale are draft crosses. They work at JPEC by giving wagon and sleigh rides. They started working at JPEC in 2004. Chip and Dale have been a team their whole life.

Jester Park Equestrian Center

Our Therapy and Lesson Horses

If you would like Information about Therapeutic Riding or Western or English Riding Lessons, or Driving Lessons, Please Call:

Jester Park Equestrian Center

11171 NW 103rd Ct.

Granger IA 50109

515-999-2818

www.JesterParkEC.com

